

Join the HK Phil, conductor Perry So and soprano Xi Wang in our annual outdoor extravaganza – Swire Symphony Under The Stars! With the iconic Hong Kong skyline as our backdrop, the HK Phil will perform a vivacious list of all-time-classics – from Offenbach's lighthearted "Can-Can" to Tchaikovsky's victorious 1812 Overture. Bring your friends and loved ones for an enchanting evening under the starry sky!

Admission is free. Each person can obtain a maximum of two tickets. Interested alumni please submit the Online Registration which will start at 10am on 3 November 2014. Only 100 tickets will be available and registration will be on first-come first-served basis (Priority registration for Life Members). Successful registration will be confirmed by email for ticket collection. We look forward to your participation and support.

Alumni who wish to get the free tickets must fill in your Lifelong Learner Card No. on online registration. If you forget Lifelong Learner Card No, please email your full English name, HKID and email address to the Alumni Affairs Office at alumni@hkupace.hku.hk.
